OLD BUSINESS / NEW BUSINESS

Breakfast with Santa

Members all agreed the breakfast went well and was successful. Tables were filled and the kids all had a terrific time. There was plenty of food for the 100 plus people that attended.

Holiday Decorating Contest

Members discuss the Holiday Decorating Contest. After comparing their choices, their decisions were: 1st place- 72 Orchard Richard and Linda Webb; 2nd place – 75 Kirkwood Tammy Hernandez; 3rd place – 9 Circle Drive Wesley and Kelly Cubby. Best street was Linwood Ave.

Snow tubing

Tara Scrittore inquired about snow tubing at Mountain Creek. This would be an event for parents and children 5 years and older and at least 72" in height. Wednesday – Friday, 6-8 pm for 2 hours was $15.00; Saturday – Sunday, 10 am-12 pm and 4-8 pm was $20.00; Sunday 11-4 pm was $30.00. Members decide on a February 17th date. Kathy will check with the insurance and the Attorney for their advisement.

Skating Night at Skylands

Suzanne volunteered to chair this event and a March 9th date is chosen. Again, Kathy will check with the Attorney for insurance reasons.

Family Fun Night

Members discuss swimming at the YMCA again as it always seems to be a successful event. A date of April 6th will be checked into.

Sparta Bowling Lanes

Members discuss holding bowling again only this time interested families will have to pre-pay at Borough Hall so that we can give Sparta Lanes a head count. More details will be discussed closer to the function date of May 18th.

Miss Hamburg Contests

Date set for June 9th with more details to follow.

Ice Cream Social

Date set for June 30th with more details to follow.

Music in the Park

Members discuss holding this event again as it was very enjoyable and they also discuss having the same band, Invited Guests, return. Paula will check to see when they are available in July and let everyone know. Members are in agreement.

Hamburg Day

Although the weather cannot be controlled, and the day last year was not the best of days to hold this event, members decide to go back to an August date and choose August 18th. Paula will contact Real Amusements to check the availability. Members discussed options on ways to cut the cost of the event.

OPEN MEETING TO THE PUBLIC

Councilmember Oehler attended the quarterly meeting at the Littell Center. The Littell Center will be sponsoring a Rubber Ducky Derby in October. This involves residents purchasing a duck for $X. Then in October the Littell Center will hold a duck dump in the Wallkill River and the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place ducks to cross the finish line will win prizes. Members thought it was a great idea and will support the idea. More details to follow.
