OLD BUSINESS / NEW BUSINESS

Family Fun Night – March 30

Sam and Suzette said the event went well: there were well over 25 in attendance and swimming so an additional lifeguard was needed. The Y had plenty of snacks and water for everyone and the evening was a success.

Sparta Bowling Lanes – May 19

Sam relayed that registering with a deadline and paying ahead of the event helped, although he still accepted people that came on the day of and paid at the door. There were 11 bowlers; some parents did bowl.

Miss Hamburg Contests – June 9

The trophies and sashes are in at Newton Trophy so Kathy will ask the Road Dept. to pick them up. Paula will use the Walmart card to get the goodie bags, flowers for the judges, the $50.00 gift cards for Little Mr. and Miss and the refreshments. Suzanne volunteered to help her. Set up will be at 12 noon in the gym at the school.

Ice Cream Social – June 23

Kathy stated that 4 people have already signed up. Suzette will purchase the ice cream and necessary items.

Music in the Park – July 13

Paula was in contact with the Boy Scouts who will gladly attend and supply food / ice cream for this event. Scout leader Dan is working with the SC Board of Health for approvals. He will set up a tent on the left side of the pavilion and use the electricity so a generator will not disturb the music event.

Miners Baseball Game – August 31

Sam volunteered to pick up the tickets from the stadium. Tara will get in touch with a flute player at the school who plays wonderfully to do God Bless America. Discussion on throwing out the 1st pitch and the Council President will be asked. More tickets will be purchased if needed.

Hamburg Day – August 18

Paula brings up her thoughts of having a pie eating contest with a prize of a $50.00 gift card and a guess the amount in the candy jar, which members agree would be fun to do. Members decide to not have a balloon person this year. Joyce said she would check into having the burn house come. Paula said the Fire Dept. mentioned they would like to change it this year from hot dogs to doing pretzels. After discussion, members decided to leave it at hot dogs with the Fire Dept. able to do pretzels in addition should they decide to do so.

Community Enhancements

Members received letters from the Fire Dept. for a donation in the amount of $100.00 for the September 23rd golf outing and from the Hamburg PTA for a Bingo event on May 31st in the amount of $75.00. At the February 19th meeting members approved these community enhancements if and when requests were received. Kathy will submit to Finance.

Littell Center

An email was received from Becky Westra of the Littell Center asking for volunteers to help with the duck derby race in October. Councilmember Oehler also had attended a quarterly meeting in which this was discussed. Anna and Tara both volunteered to be on the committee. More information will be coming regarding the event.
